

Safety Seminar

A Coffee Shop Talk

The 7 Safety Habits with Wilson Bateman

This 30-minute video is set in a coffee shop. It takes an informal look at the 7 Safety Habits, the World's First Safety Self-Help book. Author Wilson Bateman explains the book and its approach in a friendly question and answer format. Grab a coffee and join the discussion.

About the Speaker:

Wilson Bateman is an Author & International Speaker. His first book, the 7 Safety Habits, is the World's First Safety Self-Help book. Mr. Bateman is the President of Global Training Edge Inc., a management consulting firm that provides safety services on an international basis.

Wilson has worked for many Fortune 500 companies on several continents. He is a graduate of Ryerson University. He has held positions including the Director of Safety, & Regional Manager Liberty Risk Services. Wilson has received several awards including the Award of Merit from the Nova Scotia Safety Council and the Award of Safety Excellence from Electrolab.

 Saskatchewan Safety Council

 /sasksafetycouncil  @SkSafetyCouncil  /company/saskatchewan-safety-council

www.sasksafety.org

1.855.280.7115

